KAPAA LANDS WILL

BE OFFERED SOON

The surveyors are now at work plotting off into homestead lots the five thousand acres of Kapa'a lands on Kapa'a. This does not include the forest reserve.

Land Commissioner Pratt says it is "for all comers," and no one association or company will be favored.

These lands are suitable for cane, pineapple, sisal and various other products.

On the lower flats a town plot will be surveyed off and marked into residence lots.

Settlers who have any "go ahead" about them will avail themselves of this opportunity to secure good homes.

LAUKEA ANXIOUS TO BE ADMIRERCathcart Says Laukea
Should Guard
Prisoners

The meeting of the Board of Supervisors last night was delayed considerably by the reading of the quarterly report of Sheriff Laukea, who tickled his party vanity by making comparisons between his work and that of his predecessor.

Archer commented on Laukea's self-flattering comparisons.

"We had a report in 1936," he said, "that Laukea might confine himself to his own report."

"He wants us to admire his good work," explained Huestace.

"We will admire him alright," said Archer. He then pointed out that the Sheriff might quite properly leave others to blow his horn instead of wasting valuable efforts in patting himself on the back.

The report included the following data: The total number of arrests for the period named was 1346, an increase of 199 as compared with 1147 for the corresponding period in 1936. The total number of convictions was 1027, as against 732 for 1936, an increase of 295. The totals for the districts of Honolulu, Ewa, Waiolu, Koloa, Kapa'a, Koolaula and Waianae were 1117 arrests, and 732 convictions in 1936, as against 1346 arrests and 1027 convictions in 1937.

The nationalities of persons convicted are as follows: Hawaiians, 102; Portuguese, 17; Japanese, 13; Porto Ricans, 11; all others, 103.

After mentioning an increase in the convictions for drunkenness the report says:

Next in point of increase comes the offense of gambling with a total of 441 convictions as against 346 for the first three months of 1936, a gain of 95. This net result of nearly twenty-eight per cent. increase in the convictions of gambling becomes the more noticeable when it is shown that in the aggregate there was an actual decrease in the number of arrests for gambling in 1937.

In 1936 there were 332 arrests and 346 convictions; in 1937 there were 518 arrests and 441 convictions, a decrease of 113 in the number of arrests.

Speaking of juvenile offenders it says: The offenses are larceny 39, truancy 25, gambling 13, idle or absolute life 8, disobedience 3, assault and battery 5, profanity 2, and false fire alarm 2.

The delinquents are Hawaiians 52, Portuguese 32, Chinese 3, Japanese 2, others 3.

County Attorney Cathcart presented his opinion regarding the complaint that Sheriff Laukea had left certain prisoners unguarded in Judge Robinson's court, in part as follows:

Certain indictments, having been found by the Grand Jury, were returned into Court, whereupon the Court ordered bench warrants to be issued for the apprehension of the persons indicted. Pursuant to the order contained in the bench warrants, the County Sheriff proceeded to arrest the persons in the bench warrants named, and had them on the 10th day of March, 1937, before the Court for such disposition as was proper to be made of them in the premises. Having so far as obeyed the orders of the Court, the Sheriff then left the prisoners without any officer in charge of them, and they so remained unguarded until the patrol wagon was sent to convey them to the police station.

The legal question involved is whether it was the duty of the sheriff under the law to guard in the court room the prisoners, whom he had arrested on these bench warrants. I would say, unhesitatingly, that it was his duty to so guard and safely keep these prisoners.

The law (Section 68 of the County Act) says that the County Sheriff shall "attend all circuit courts held within the county and obey all lawful orders and directions of all courts held within the county." Among the duties devolved on him by law is to safely keep all persons committed to his charge.

The bench warrants were lawful orders of the court. Under these bench warrants, it was the duty of the County Sheriff to apprehend the prisoners and under the law he was then required to guard and safely keep them until discharged from his custody by the process of law.

This, I believe, fully answers your inquiry concerning the legal aspect of the investigation.

No comment was made on the report.
